

Louisiana Junior Classical League
Regional Certamen Tournaments 2017
Lower Level – Final Round

1. What is the case of "soldiers" in this sentence: Ego et meus frater fortes milites sumus?

Nominative

Bonus 1: What is the case of "soldiers" in this sentence: Cur, milites, fortiter non pugnatis?

Vocative

Bonus 2: What degree is the adverb "fortiter" in the previous sentence?

Comparative

2. What part of speech are "diu, mox, nunc, tum"?

Adverbs

Bonus 1: What part of speech are "ego, se, nos, quis"?

Pronouns

Bonus 2: What is the dative plural of "ego"?

Nobis

3. What latin phrase meaning, "nourishing" or "kind mother" is used in reference to one's school or college?

Alma Mater

Bonus 1: What Latin phrase is used in English to mean "coversely" or "the other way around"?

Vice versa

Bonus 2: What Latin phrase is used in English to mean "something for something"?

Quid pro quo

4. Say in Latin, "it does not follow"?

Non sequitur

Bonus 1: What comic strip would the Romans have known as "Vir Araneus"?

Spider man

Bonus 2: Who would have been called "Homo Ferri"?

Ironman

5. Complete this analogy: latus : late :: brevis : _____.

Breviter

Bonus 1: We know that "brevis" means "brief", but what is the Latin word for "boxer"?

Pugil

Bonus 2: Translate the following sentence: Pugil in arena punaverit.

The boxer will have fought in the arena.

6. What is a "malum persicum"?

Peach

Bonus 1: What color was known as "malum aureum"?

Orange

Bonus 2: What is a "prunum"?

Plum

7. The name of what candy, if translated into Greek, would be "mu kai mu"?

M & Ms

Bonus 1: The name of what candy, if translated into Latin would be "vitae servans"?

Life Savers

Bonus 2: The name of what candy, if translated into Latin would be "dies stipendi solvendi"?

Payday

8. Who was king of Rome after Romulus?

Numa Pompilius

Bonus 1: Who was king of Rome after Numa Pompilius?

Tullus Hostilius

Bonus 2: Who was king after Tullus Hostilius?

Ancus Martius

9. From the names of which deities do we get the words "music" and "museum"?

The Muses

Bonus 1: Which muse was the muse of history?

Clio

Bonus 2: Which muse was the muse of memory?

Mnemosyne

10. With one Latin word, categorize the following: Appenninus, Alpes, Pyrenaei, Iura.

Montes (Mons)

Bonus 1: Between what two Roman provinces were the Pyrenees Mountains?

Gallia et Hispania

Bonus 2: Caesar said that "All Gaul is divided into three parts," but the Roman province of Gaul was divided into two. What were the two Gaulic provinces called?

Gaulia Cisalpina / Gaulia transalpinus

(Alternate Question) What case in Latin is used to translate an appositive?

The same case as the noun it explains

Bonus 1: Translate the appositive in this sentence into Latin: They worship only two goddesses, Minerva and Vesta.

Minervam et Vestam

Bonus 2: What quality do the goddesses Minerva and Vesta have in common?

They are both Virgin Goddesses